

IUP Graduate Handbook

Eberly College of Business

MBA Program

Handbook Updated 2023-24

Table of Contents

Indiana University of Pennsylvania	1
The Eberly MBA	1
IUP's Civility Statement	1
Affirmative Action	1
Title IX Reporting Requirement	1
Student Conduct and Student Rights	1
Eberly College of Business	2
Mission Statement and Program Objectives	2
Faculty and Staff	2
Admission	3
Financial Assistance	3
Graduate Assistantships	3
Academic Advisement	4
Campus Resources & Student Support	4
IUP Email	4
Graduate Student Assembly	4
Programs and Degrees	5
Master of Business Administration Program	5
MBA
MBA, Supply Chain Management (SCM), STEM	5
Evaluation of Students	5
Degree Completion	6
MBA, Supply Chain Management (SCM), STEM	7
University Policies and Procedures	7
Research	8
Department/Program Awards	8
Signature Page	9

Transforming lives—it's why we're here and what we do best. We focus on giving our students the education, opportunities, and experiences that create ideal conditions for personal growth and success. Along the way, we make an impact on the region, and even the world, through collaborations, shared facilities, research efforts, and our alumni, who take what they've learned at IUP with them as they pursue their professional goals.

Continuous growth is the sign of strong business. The same is true for your career.

The Eberly Master of Business Administration degree can be a powerful force in your professional life, moving you ahead at a pace that works for you. Through our On-Campus MBA, and Supply Chain Management MBA options, you can reach your goals in a way that fits conveniently into your life.

Balance our competitive tuition with the career-boosting qualities we've built into our MBA program—such as specialized tracks and business outreach opportunities. Together, they add up to a powerful

In addition to meeting minimum admission requirements of IUP Graduate School, students seeking admission to the MBA program must submit:

- Current Resume/CV
- Interview/telephone interview if required
-

The MBA Program Coordinator is the advisor for MBA students. The coordinator/advisor will assist you with course selections for each semester as well as create an MBA schedule plan for timely completion of your degree. The advisor will also mentor you in the areas of professional development and career advancement. MBA students are expected to consult with the advisor each s5.9ich74(v)-5n (m)--1.ow.s

dismissed from their degree program as well as from the School of Graduate Studies and Research and will not be permitted to register for further courses.

MBA program consists entirely of coursework and there is no thesis required for this degree.

Successful graduation requires students to complete all required courses for their selected program of study

Understanding the requirements and expectations of the MBA program is a important element of your ensured success. Please read the handbook carefully and contact the MBA department or IUP Graduate Admissions if you have any questions.

My signature below indicates that I am responsible for reading and understanding the information provided and referenced in this department/program student handbook.

_____ [please initial] I understand my program coordinator may share this document with the School of Graduate Studies and Research.

Print Name

Signature

Date
