

This process allows students to designate the individuals or entities to whom their educational record can be released. This is optional, and the student can choose, or not choose, to release their educational record information.

These authorizations stay in place until the student deletes or edits them. Renewals are unnecessary.