- Meeting called to order by Matt Baumer at 3:40 p.m.
- Agenda APPROVED on a Martin/Laverick motion.
- October 12, 2010 minutes were APPROVED on a Moore/Gunter motion as submitted.

- Dr. Piper was out of town.
- Dr. Baumer had no comments.
- Dr. Robertson brought forward:
  - FIN 630 Financial Management (Distance Ed)
  - NEW PROGRAM Strategic Studies in Weapons of Mass Destruction (SWMD)

- Dr. Mack commented that Dr. Werner had attended the October 20 Graduate Coordinators meeting. Coordinators had a chance to asked questions and share concerns. Dr. Mack and Donna Griffith provided the coordinators with an overview of GA allocations and Dr. Kilmarx followed up with information on potential expansion of differential tuition.
- Dr Kilmarx discussed the possible expansion of differential tuition to all of the doctoral programs and additional master's programs. The committee was interested in the impact of the last round of graduate tuition increases on enrollment. Dr. Kilmarx indicated that the impact appeared to be minimal. Additional discussion related to this proposal followed.
