

APPROVED MINUTES
University Wide Undergraduate Curriculum Committee
Tuesday April 1, 2014
16A Leonard Hall

- I. Call to Order
In attendance: Clewell,

- x On a Lewis Greenawald motion the proposal was provisionally approved. Muchtar abstained.
- x 13-175 ENGL 227 Introduction to Legal Writing, new course
  - x Edit the course description: 1) Start with Introduces legal research and writing.. Begin the second sentence Students learn to . . . . More prereq up to top 3) o rather than zero in credit hours.
  - x "C or better" can only be used for department majors and not for a course taken by other departments. This should be removed.
  - x On page 12, is this course a writing intensive course? What is the rationale for the student enrollment cap at 18 and not 25
  - x Check course hours and weeks. There are two extra weeks.
  - x Percents in evaluation methods only add up to 90%.
  - x Outcome #2 should be reworded Suggest: Use research skills in finding and citing necessary information for legal documents.
  - x Page 8 A/2: The course must be added to the list of approved courses for the pre-law English history. English Pre-Law students don't have the English courses listed under prelaw so it may need a track revisor for the core classes
  - x On a Fair McKeem motion,
