COURSE ANALYSIS QUESTIONNAIRE
ES-325 Small Business Management

Section A: Details of the Course

[The following area contains a table with multiple rows and columns, which is almost entirely obscured by heavy horizontal black bars. Only faint outlines of the table structure are visible.]

- B3 There is no overlap with courses offered by other departments. Hence, there should be no conflicts with other departments to resolve.
- B4 At this time, no students from the School of Continuing Education are projected to take this course.

Section C: Implementation

- C1 No new resources will be needed to teach this course, since current resources within the Department of Management & Marketing are expected to be adequate to the purpose. The present Human Resources Management and Industrial Management majors are scheduled for streamlining, and there is to be substantial tightening of the General Management major's requirements.

E. DETAILED COURSE OUTLINE

At the instructor's discretion, approximately equal amounts of time (roughly three lectures each) would be devoted to each of the following subject areas:
