~~LIBERAL STUDIES GOALS~~

PHILOSOPHY 410 CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY

II. LIBERAL STUDIES GOALS

A. INTELLECTUAL SKILLS & MODES OF THINKING:

1. Students will develop the skills of inquiry, abstract logical thinking, critical analysis, synthesis, decision making, and other aspects of the critical process through the close analysis and evaluation of fundamental issues. Students confront such fundamental questions as "What is the relationship between language and the world?" "What is knowledge?" "What is philosophy?" "What is truth?" Conflicting answers to these questions are explored and evaluated. Students are then encouraged to formulate their own answers, and they will do so because these issues affect their lives.

PRIMARY

2. Students will develop literacy through active critical reading.

LIBERAL STUDIES? Please attach answers to these questions.

- A. If this is a multiple-section, multiple-instructor course, there should be a basic equivalency (though not necessarily uniformity) among the sections in such things as objectives, content, assignments, and evaluation. Note: this should not be interpreted to mean that all professors must make the same assignments or teach the same way; departments are encouraged to develop their courses to allow the flexibility which contributes to imaginative, committed teaching and capitalizes on the strengths of individual faculty.

What are the strategies that your department will use to ensure that

III. GENERAL CRITERIA
