

Social Equity & Title IX News

Continued Support and Reminders

The Social Equity and Title IX Office remains open and, though functioning remotely at this time, the staff is available to assist as needed. Members of the IUP community have the right to be free from all forms of sex- and gender-based harassment, discrimination, and misconduct. As noted in a recent email and newscast by Elise Glenn, Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer/Title IX Coordinator, please be reminded that the policy applies to online and virtual behaviors as well. All members are expected to maintain a tone of civility and respect in online classes and activities, just as they would in person. Employees and university-related personnel are and are required to immediately report concerning incidents, regardless of how they learn of the alleged misconduct.
