

Social Equity & Title IX News

November 10, 2020 Volume 3, Issue 1

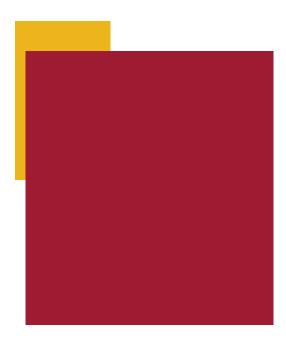

Issue Highlights: On September 28 and 29, 2020, two small groups of students took an observational walk around campus with President Driscoll and Elise Glenn, Chief Diversity k \c']g'fYdfYgYbhYX3Ï pictures, plaques, and dcghYfg3ï UbX Î K \]WX Details on action/next steps are forthcoming!

Campus Walking Audits Conducted by Students and Inclusion Officer/Title IX Coordinator. The groups were comprised of Black, Brown, Latinx, LGBTQIA, and other inclusion-focused students. A questionnaire was provided and conversations were prompted by gi W. ei Ygh]cbg Ug. Î K \Uh objects do you notice and ÎK \c'Xc'mci bch\W'cb buildings or areas of campus do you feel are most welcoming? Which are bch3i "H\Y ghi XYbhq dfci]X! ed remarkable, valuable information and suggestions on what would make them feel that the campus is theirs and truly reflects who they are as studentsí and who we are as IUP.

2020-2021 Annual Trainings

All university related personnel must complete annual training on the Sexual Discrimination and Sexual Misand duent (Teitle IX) Policy and the Protection of Minors

The office hosts and supports campuswide programs, celebrations, dialogues and trainings. Funding is also provided to the diversity commissions and councils: the

> , (, and the