Title IX

- ! Indiana University of Pennsylvania and its faculty are committed to assuring a safe and productive educational environment for all students. In order to meet with commitment and to comply with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and guidance from the Office for Civil Rights, the University requires faculty members to report incidents of sexual violence shared by students to the University's Title IX Coordinator. The only exceptions to the faculty member's reporting obligation are when incidents of sexual violence are communicated by a student during a classroom discussion, in a writing assignment for a class, or as part of a University-approved research project. Faculty members are obligated to report sexual violence or any other abuse of a student who was, or is, a child (under the age of 18 years of age) when the abuse allegedly occurred to the person designated in the University protection of minors policy.

Academic Honesty

- ! All written work must be original for this class.
- ! Plagiarism is using the work of others as if it was your own. It is a serious offense with serious consequences. Suspected instances of plagiarism will be discussed with the
