Today, the University Advancement Committee has four action items. They are four naming resolutions: for the dining room in the Allenwood Restaurant, for the Breezedale terracethe

Action 2:

Mary Jo Banks Lyttle served as assistant director of the Office of Alumni Relations from 1989 to 1992 and as director from 1992 to 2015;

Ms. Lyttle was instrumental in building a strong network of volunteers for the IUP Alumni Association:

Ms. Lyttle led the IUP Alumni Association Board of Directors in building revenue streams to support alumni programming;

Ms. Lyttle led the IUP Alumni Association Board of Directors and the office staff through two strategic planning processes that continue to shape the association;

Ms. Lyttle was devoted to IUP and to building relationships with alumni in all possible ways;

Kim Lyttle and Carl Johnson, Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity brothers, came together with a common goal and made significant financial contributions to restore the Breezedale Terrace;

, that the Council of Trustees of Indiana University of Pennsylvania recognizes the incredible dedication of Mary Jo Banks Lyttle and the contributions of time and treasure of Kim Lyttle and Carl Johnson by naming Lyttle Terrace in honor and memory of Mary Jo Banks Lyttle.

The following motion is recommended for approval:

THAT THE RESOLUTION FOR THE NAMING OF THE BREEZEDALE TERRACE IN HONOR AND MEMORY OF MARY JO BANKS LYTTLE BE APPROVED.

Action 3:

Sarah Mantel was a member of the Indiana University of Pennsylvania faculty from 1986 to May 2013, having served as professor of voice and director of Opera and Music Theatre; Dr. Mantel directed more than 60 mainstage opera and music theatre productions and developed the Opera/Music Theatre program to include a season of two mainstage productions each year;

Dr. Mantel, a member of the Music Department, joined forces with the Department of Theatre and Dance in 1990 to begin a collaborao.00009462.9ment, j

Dr. Dickinson is the trombonist with the HoodleBug Brass, the faculty brass quintet at IUP, with which he toured Russia in 2012, performing at venues in St. Petersburg and Moscow; numerous colleagues, friends, and former students made contributions to establish the Christian Dickinson Trombone Fund:

that the Council of Trustees of Indiana

University of Pennsylvania recognizes his significant impact on music and on the lives of IUP students by naming the Christian Dickinson Trombone Studio in his honor.

The following motion is recommended for approval:

THAT THE RESOLUTION FOR THE NAMING OF THE TR

held in April and engaged 154 donors and students. To recognize the National Campaign Cabinet and donors who contributed $50,000 or more during the recent campaign, the Imagine Victory Dinner Celebration was hosted on June 25 at the Kovalchick Complex, deeming the campaign a great success. University commencement ceremonies